Contra Costa Community College District Selects Satinder S. Malhi as Director of Communications and Community Relations

MARTINEZ, California – The Contra Costa Community College District (4CD) has selected Satinder S. Malhi as the new Director of Communications and Community Relations.

Mr. Malhi most recently served as a Legislative Advocate for the California State University (CSU) Office of Advocacy and State Relations, where he provided subject matter expertise, analysis, political strategy, and legislative advocacy. In this role, he worked closely with legislators, their staff and other external community stakeholders to advance the legislative priorities of the CSU system, which is the largest public four-year university system in the United States.

“I am excited and honored for the opportunity to serve as the Director of Communications and Community Relations for the Contra Costa Community College District,” said Mr. Malhi. “As an East Bay native, I am deeply committed to working with internal and external stakeholders to improve student success, and advocate for additional resources for higher education, especially in the current budget climate.”

Chancellor Mojdeh Mehdizadeh shared, “We are delighted to welcome Satinder to 4CD. His extensive knowledge and background of the higher education landscape, along with his experience of having successfully implemented a government and community relations program at a public university, will serve as a tremendous asset to 4CD.”

Mr. Malhi holds a masters’ degree in Public Administration from CSU, East Bay, and a bachelor’s degree in Politics/Legal Studies from University of California, Santa Cruz.
