

FACULTY ABSENCES

Faculty who anticipate an absence must immediately advise an appropriate manager of the college. It is the responsibility of the manager to secure a substitute competent in the subject area. Absent faculty are expected to provide assignments for those class sessions to be missed.

If a substitute is not available, the class shall be met by a staff member, assignments made when applicable, and the class officially canceled.