

STATUS OF CLASSIFIED SUPERVISORS OR CONFIDENTIAL EMPLOYEES UPON CHANGE OF CLASSIFICATION

A classified supervisor or confidential employee of the District who acquires probationary status as the result of a change of classification shall retain permanent status in the former classification until completion of the probationary period in the new classification.

In the event that the probationary period in the new classification is not successful, the employee shall revert to the former classification with all rights and privileges held at the time of the change of classification.
